

POSITION VACANT

SENIOR INDUSTRIAL RELATIONS ADVISER/ LEGAL ADVISER

A position is available with the Chamber's Industrial and Workplace Relations Division for a Senior Industrial Relations Adviser/Legal Adviser.

The NTCCI is the Territory's largest employer association with offices in all major regions of the NT.

The position of Senior Industrial Relations Adviser/Legal Adviser will be an important team member, complementing the service provided by the Industrial and Workplace Relations Division. The Senior Industrial Relations Adviser/Legal Adviser will provide advice and assistance to employers on industrial and workplace relations issues. The person will also be required to represent members of the NTCCI in the Industrial Relations Commission and other jurisdictions as required.

The salary range is $43,000 - $50,000 p.a. A three-month probation period will apply. Applications close at COB 31st January 2001. For the duty statement and selection criteria, please call the NTCCI on 89363100 or Fax: 8981 1405 or e-mail darwin@ntcci.com.au

WANT TO CONTRIBUTE TO BALANCE ?

Got an axe to grind? Need to get something off your chest?

Why don't you contribute to Balance.

Balance is printed every month. We accept letters to the editor, articles, anecdotes for Muster Room, photos and more...

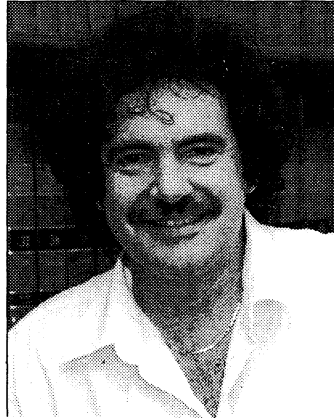

You can email your contributions to:
skilvert@lawsocnt.asn.au
or fax: 8941 1623

AROUND THE NT BAR

Patrick McIntyre

Patrick McIntyre is a barrister at John Toohey Chambers in Darwin.

Patrick was first admitted to practice as a barrister and solicitor in Adelaide, South Australia in 1979.

After working in Adelaide at two major law firms, Patrick established his own legal practice in Clare in rural South Australia in 1981. He remained in practice until moving to Darwin in 1994 to work in the area of Aboriginal rights and multi-party mediation.

Patrick practised predominantly as a solicitor and as counsel in civil litigation in the Adelaide and regional Magistrates, District, Supreme, AAT and Federal Courts.

His legal career has been dominated by large scale "representative type" civil claims that provided opportunities to explore and implement processes for management of decision making and dispute resolution within large groups of people.

Patrick has been a member of a large number of committees particularly in the area of dispute resolution. He was a member of the Board of Darwin Theatre Company 1998-2000.

He has also written, directed and performed in productions for one of South Australia's most successful amateur theatre companies "The Auburn Players" and played Australian Rules Football and hockey.

Patrick's area of practice includes civil litigation (torts, civil rights, administrative law, trade practices, insurance law, native title and commercial), mediation and negotiation, multi-party and class actions.

Steve Southwood QC

Steve Southwood QC is a barrister at James Muirhead Chambers in Darwin.

Steve completed his law degree at Macquarie University in Sydney. He has always practised law in the Northern Territory. First as a solicitor with Mildrens doing personal injuries and medical negligence work. Secondly, as a solicitor with Ward Keller with a commercial litigation and mining law practise.

Steve commenced practice at the Bar of the Northern Territory in 1990. He first practised from William Forster Chambers until he founded James Muirhead Chambers. Steve is also a member of the Victorian Bar.

Steve is the Immediate Past President of the Law Society Northern Territory, the Vice President of the NT Bar Association and Executive Member of the Law Council of Australia.

He also holds the positions of Deputy

President of the Community Living Areas Tribunal and Deputy President of the Planning Appeals Tribunal.

Steve has lectured at the Northern Territory University in the past on civil procedure, advocacy and ethics.

His interests include tennis and history.

Steve's area of practice includes contract, tort, equity, building and construction, medical negligence, professional negligence, trade practices, administration law and work health. Steve regularly appears in the NT Court of Appeal, NT Supreme Court and Federal Court.