10. After section sixteen A of the Principal Act the following section is inserted :—

“ 16B.—(1.) A contributor who has made an election in accordance with the last preceding section and becomes eligible or is required to contribute for an additional unit or units of pension in pursuance of this Act may, within the prescribed time, elect to contribute for that additional unit, or those additional units, at the appropriate rate based on a retiring age of sixty-five years.

Election to contribute for additional units at sixty-five years of age.

“ (2.) A contributor who—

- (a) has made an election in accordance with the last preceding section ;
- (b) has completed his contributions in accordance with the provisions of this Act ; and
- (c) but for the fact that he has so completed his contributions, would have been eligible or required to contribute for an additional unit or units of pension in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, may, within the prescribed time, elect to contribute for that additional unit, or those additional units, at the appropriate rate based on a retiring age of sixty-five years.

“ (3.) Where a contributor has made an election under either of the last two preceding sub-sections—

- (a) any further additional unit of pension for which he commences to contribute after that election shall be at the appropriate rate based on a retiring age of sixty-five years ; and
- (b) the maximum age for retirement of that contributor shall, in respect of all the additional units of pension in relation to which this section applies, be sixty-five years.”

11. After Division 3 of Part III. of the Principal Act the following Division is inserted :—

“ DIVISION 3A.—Reserve Units of Pension.

“ 17A. There shall be a Reserve Units of Pension Account (in this Division referred to as ‘ the Account ’), which shall form part of the fund and into which shall be paid all contributions made by contributors under this Division.

Reserve Units of Pension Account.

“ 17B.—(1.) A contributor who is contributing for the number of units of pension corresponding to the salary-group within which his salary falls may, from time to time, elect to contribute for one or more reserve units of pension in accordance with this Division.

Contribution for reserve units of pension.

“ (2.) The number of reserve units of pension for which a contributor shall be entitled to contribute shall not exceed four.

"(3.) Contributions in respect of a reserve unit of pension—

- (a) shall be in accordance with the rate prescribed in the appropriate Schedule to this Act; and
 (b) shall be payable as from the date on which the contributor elects to contribute for that reserve unit of pension, unless that date is not a pay-day, in which case the contributions shall be payable as from the next following pay-day.

Transfer of contributions to Superannuation Fund.

"17C.—(1.) Where a contributor who is contributing for one or more reserve units of pension becomes eligible or required to contribute for one or more additional units of pension in pursuance of the provisions of this Act, he may elect to transfer to the fund the contributions paid by him to the Account in respect of a number of reserve units of pension not exceeding the number of those additional units of pension.

"(2.) Where a contributor so elects, no further contributions shall be paid into the Account in respect of the reserve units of pension to which the election applies and the contributions payable by the contributor in respect of so many of the additional units of pension as is equal to the number of those reserve units of pension shall be at the same rate as the contributions paid into the Account in respect of those reserve units of pension.

Discontinuance of contributions.

"17D.—(1.) A contributor who is contributing for one or more reserve units of pension may elect to discontinue his contributions in respect of any or all of those units, in which case he shall be paid from the Account the amount of the contributions already made by him in respect of those reserve units of pension, together with compound interest on those contributions at the specified rate from the respective dates of payment.

"(2.) Where a contributor who is contributing for one or more reserve units of pension ceases to be an employee, there shall be paid to him or to his personal representatives, from the Account, the amount of his contributions to the Account, together with compound interest on those contributions at the specified rate from the respective dates of payment.

"(3.) For the purposes of the last two preceding sub-sections, 'the specified rate' means, in relation to any period, a rate determined by the Board in respect of that period.

Contributors not entitled to re-elect.

"17E. A contributor who has made an election under section seventeen c or seventeen d of this Act shall not again be eligible to elect to contribute for reserve units of pension."

(2.) Schedules II., IV., VI. and VIII. to the Principal Act are amended by omitting the figures “£52” (wherever occurring) and inserting in their stead the figures “£65”.

29.—(1.) Where, immediately prior to the date of commencement of this Act, a contributor (not being a contributor to whom the next succeeding section applies) was contributing a sum which would provide units of pension less than the number of units of pension specified in column two of the scale contained in sub-section (1.) of section thirteen of the Principal Act opposite to the salary-group within which the salary of the contributor fell immediately prior to that date, the contributor may, within twelve months after that date, elect to increase the amount of his contribution to a sum which will provide units of pension not exceeding the number specified in column two of the scale contained in sub-section (1.) of section thirteen of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, opposite to the salary-group in which his salary fell at the date of commencement of this Act.

Provisions with respect to contributors not contributing for full number of units.

(2.) An election under the last preceding sub-section shall not have effect unless, within six months after the date of the election, the contributor satisfies the Superannuation Board that he is not suffering from any physical or mental defect likely to render him incapable of performing his duties before attaining the maximum age for retirement.

(3.) Any increased contribution payable in pursuance of sub-section (1.) of this section shall be payable as from the date of the election, but where the date from which that contribution is payable is not a pay-day the increased contribution shall be payable as from the next following pay-day.

Fr visa ad with respect to contributors whose salaries exceed £884 per annum.

30.—(1.) Where, immediately prior to the date of commencement of this Act, a contributor whose salary exceeded Eight hundred and eighty-four pounds per annum was contributing for the maximum number of units of pension for which he was eligible or required to contribute, he may, within twelve months after that date, elect to increase the amount of his contribution to a sum which will provide units of pension not exceeding the number specified in column two of the scale contained in sub-section (1.) of section thirteen of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, opposite to the salary-group within which his salary fell on that date.

(2.) Where a contributor who has elected to increase his contributions in accordance with the last preceding sub-section is retired before the first day of July, One thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, on the ground of invalidity or physical or mental incapacity to perform his duties, or dies before that date, the Commonwealth shall pay to the Superannuation Fund the amount by which that portion of the pension payable to him as the result of his election exceeds so much of that portion as is equivalent to the contributions made by him in respect of that portion and the Consolidated Revenue Fund is, to the necessary extent, hereby appropriated accordingly.

(3.) Any increased contribution payable in pursuance of sub-section (1.) of this section shall be payable as from the date of the election, but where the date from which that contribution is payable is not a pay-day the increased contribution shall be payable as from the next following pay-day.

Rate of existing pensions to be increased.

31.—(1.) Where, at the date of commencement of this Act, a person is in receipt of a pension under the Principal Act, not being a pension payable—

- (a) in respect of a child ;
- (b) under section fifty-seven of the Principal Act, other than a pension for which that person made contributions to a State Fund as defined by section sixty AN of the Principal Act ; or
- (c) under section fifty-eight of the Principal Act, the amount of the pension shall be increased by one-quarter.

(2.) The Commonwealth shall pay to the Superannuation Fund the amount of the increase and the Consolidated Revenue Fund is, to the necessary extent, hereby appropriated accordingly.

(3.) The provisions of this section shall apply in respect of the first fortnightly payment of pension made after the date of commencement of this Act and in respect of all subsequent payments.

32.—(1.) Where, prior to the commencement of this Act, a contributor to the Provident Account received a payment under section sixty y of the Principal Act, there shall, subject to the next succeeding sub-section, be paid to him, from the Provident Account, an additional amount equal to the difference between the amount paid to him under section sixty y of the Principal Act and the amount which would have been paid to him if that section of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, had been in force at the time of his retirement.

Provisions with respect to contributors to the Provident Account who retired prior to commencement of this Act.

(2.) Where a contributor to whom the last preceding sub-section applies retired not less than twelve months prior to the date of commencement of this Act, the additional amount payable to him in pursuance of the last preceding sub-section shall be reduced, in respect of each complete year which has elapsed since the date of his retirement, by an amount equal to one per centum of the amount paid to him under section sixty y of the Principal Act.

(3.) Where a male contributor to the Provident Account in relation to whom sub-section (1.) of this section applies has died prior to the commencement of this Act, and is survived by a widow who was wholly or in part dependent upon him at the time of his death, payment of the amount which would have been paid to the contributor if he had died after the commencement of this Act may, in the discretion of the Board, be made, from the Provident Account, to that widow or to such other person as the Board determines.

(4.) Where any such contributor is not survived by a widow but is survived by children under the age of sixteen years, payment of the amount which would have been paid to the contributor if he had died after the commencement of this Act shall be divided equally amongst those children.

(5.) Where the widow of a contributor to the Provident Account received payment of an amount under section sixty z of the Principal Act, there shall, subject to sub-section (7.) of this section, be paid to her, from the Provident Account, an additional amount equal to the difference between the amount paid to her under section sixty z of the Principal Act and the amount which would have been paid to her if that section of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, had been in force at the time of the death of the contributor.

(6.) Where the children of a contributor to the Provident Account received payment of an amount under section sixty z of the Principal Act, there shall, subject to the next succeeding sub-section, be paid to them, from the Provident Account, an additional amount equal to the difference between the amount paid to them under section sixty z of the Principal Act and the amount which would have been paid to them if that section of the Principal Act, as amended by this Act, had been in force at the time of the death of the contributor.

(7.) Where a contributor to whose widow sub-section (5.) of this section applies, or a contributor to whose children the last preceding sub-section applies, has died not less than one year prior to the commencement of this Act, the additional amount payable to the widow in pursuance of sub-section (5.) of this section, or to the children in pursuance of the last preceding sub-section, shall be reduced, in respect of each complete year which has elapsed since the date of the death of the contributor, by an amount equal to one per centum of the amount paid to her or to them under section sixty z of the Principal Act.

(8.) Where a widow referred to in sub-section (5.) of this section has died prior to the commencement of this Act and is survived by children under the age of sixteen years, payment of the amount which would have been paid to her if she had died after the commencement of this Act shall be divided equally amongst those children.

(9.) The Commonwealth shall pay to the Provident Account the amount of any payments made from the Provident Account under this section and the Consolidated Revenue Fund is, to the necessary extent, hereby appropriated accordingly.

Payments to
by approved authorities.

33. Where any amount is payable by the Commonwealth under any of the last three preceding sections to the Superannuation Fund or to the Provident Account in respect of a person who was or is a person employed by an approved authority, the approved authority shall pay to the Commonwealth the amount so paid by the Commonwealth and may apply for that purpose any moneys under the control of the approved authority.
