

ANNO QUADRAGESIMO ET QUADRAGESIMO PRIMO
VICTORIÆ REGINÆ.

A.D. 1877.

---

No. 73.

An Act to amend the Education Act, 1875.

[Assented to, 21st December, 1877.]

WHEREAS it is expedient to authorize the Council of Education, Preamble.
duly appointed under "The Education Act, 1875," to grant leases and licences for mineral purposes in manner hereinafter specified—Be it therefore Enacted by the Governor of the Province of South Australia, with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly of the said Province, in the present Parliament assembled, as follows:

I. From and after the passing of this Act the Council of Education, duly appointed under "The Education Act, 1875," shall have the following powers and authorities in addition to the powers and authorities vested in such Council by virtue of the said Act, that is to say—

Leases and licences for mineral purposes may be granted by Council of Education.

- I. To demise and lease any of the lands which shall at any time have been granted to the said Council under the authority of the said Act by way of endowment to any person for the purpose of mining for any mineral or metal for such term of years, and subject to such terms and conditions, and with such powers in all respects as Crown Lands may, under the Acts and Regulations in force for the time being in the said Province, be demised and leased.
- II. To grant licences to any persons to search for and remove minerals and metals from any part of such lands, subject to such fees or other payments and upon such terms and conditions in all respects as licences to search for and remove minerals minerals and metals from Crown Lands, may be granted under the Acts and Regulations in force for the time being in the said Province.

Application of moneys.

2. All rents, royalties, fees, annual or other payments received in respect of such leases and licences shall be deemed to be annual income, and shall be paid into the Treasury and applied in the same manner as the annual income derived from other leases granted under the said Act.

Short title and incorporation.

3. This Act may be cited for all purposes as the "Education Act Amendment Act, 1877," and shall be incorporated with "The Education Act, 1875."

In the name and on behalf of Her Majesty, I hereby assent to this Bill.

WM. F. DRUMMOND JERVOIS, Governor.
