ANNO TRICESIMO-TERTIO

VICTORIÆ REGINÆ,

No. 12.

AN ACT to explain the Operation of An Act to amend the Law relating to the Estates of Deceased Persons. [22 October, 1869.]

WHEREAS by the Act of Parliament of the 22nd Victoria, PREAMBLE.
No. 19, it is enacted, amongst other things, that when any person shall, after the 31st December in the year 1858, die seised of or entitled to any estate or interest in any land or other hereditaments which shall at the time of his death be charged with the payment of any sum or sums of money by way of Mortgage, and such person shall not by his Will or Deed or other document, have signified any contrary or other intention, the Heir or Devisee to whom such land or hereditaments shall descend or be devised shall not be entitled to have the Mortgage debt discharged or satisfied out of the Personal estate or any other Real estate of such person, but the land or hereditaments so charged shall, as between the different persons claiming through or under the deceased person, be primarily liable to the payment of all Mortgage debts with which the same shall be charged, every part thereof according to its value bearing a proportionate part of the Mortgage debts charged on the whole thereof: And whereas doubts may exist upon the construction of the said Act, and it is expedient that such doubts should for the future be removed: Be it therefore enacted by His Excellency the Governor of Tasmania, by and with the advice and consent of the Legislative Council and House of Assembly, in Parliament assembled, as follows:—

Deceased Persons' Estates.

In construing Wills, general direction for payment of debts out of personalty not to include Mortgage debts, unless such intention expressly implied.

1 In the construction of the Will of any person who may die after the Thirty-first day of December, 1869, a general direction that the debts or that all the debts of the Testator shall be paid out of his Personal estate shall not be deemed to be a declaration of an intention contrary to or other than the Rule established by the said Act, unless such contrary or other intention shall be further declared by words expressly or by necessary implication referring to all or some of the Testator's debts or debt charged by way of Mortgage on any part of his Real estate.

Interpretation of word "Mortgage."

2 In the construction of the said Act, and of this Act, the word "Mortgage" shall be deemed to extend to any lien for unpaid purchase money upon any lands or hereditaments purchased by a Testator.
